SKIJORDUE 2018 MEDIA KIT

BUILDING THE SPORT

Skijoring, derived from the Norwegian word skikjøring meaning ski driving, is a winter sport where a person on skis is pulled by a horse, dog(s) or motor vehicle

OUR STORY

Skijordue began as a private event, an entertaining way to combine extreme skijoring and cheesy fondue with a groovy après ski vibe. The entry fee was cheese. Twelve people were invited to participate, word spread and 65 showed up. Within a year Skijordue developed into a competitive sporting charity event with a unique crowd of 700 enthusiastic participants, volunteers, sponsors and spectators.

OUR MISSION

Skijoring is the fastest growing winter sport in Canada. Skijor Canada formed in late 2017 in order to support safe, consistent development of the sport on a national level with a goal of forming a country wide circuit and Canadian Championship. Skijor Canada offers information for competitors, exposure for sponsors and turnkey event solutions including website templates and support, online merchandising and event planning guidance, regulations, course designs, insurance options and sponsor introductions.

BUZZ

SKIJORDUE

"For the as-yet uninitiated, Skijordue could well be considered the social event of the Alberta foothills. Think: Woolly chaps, furs, hockey jerseys, buckskin, cowboy hats, amazingly athletic equines and other accoutrements that echo with Alberta's unique western vibe and pride. The fun part? Why the people, of course! It's a mashup of the who's-who of Calgary society blended with winter athletes and ranch cowboys, with a dash of Euro-trash thrown in."

Ingrid Schulz - Sponsor and owner of Cody & Sioux

"Not knowing much about Skijordue going in, I was surprised at what an AWESOME event it was. My daughter and I raced together, I couldn't wipe the grin off my face the whole day."

Sheldon Kennedy - NHL Alumni

"It might be the sport of all sports to propel equestrian activities to the stratosphere"

Jenn Webster - Editor, Western Horse Review

"Skijordue is the most fun I've had with my clothes on"

Tom Eirikson - Champion Cowboy and Stunt Man/Coordinator
